PWN and Summer in the City

In July several members and their guests enjoyed a delightful PWN evening of social networking the old fashioned way. We didn't text or Facebook™, but met face to face to see the wonderful production "Wicked" at the Orpheum Theater. One of the great values of PWN is strengthening relationships with other members by attending outside events.

We're going bowling! August 18th!

Our mission statement:

Professional Women's Network facilitates business development by inspiring relationships among women in all professions.

But if you missed the theater, no worries - we have another fun event happening on August 18th. For the past several years we enjoyed a picnic at the home of our esteemed former member Delia Ehrlich. The board knew we could never duplicate that, so we chose something different. So... we're going bowling! When was the last time you did that? See the article below for further details.

PWN is reaching out for new members! We want to build our organization with dynamic women who care about and respect each other while building their business at the same time. Some categories to invite to our next luncheon are women who own businesses such as a boutique owner, doctor, virtual assistant, architect, PR person, life or business coach, bookkeeper, landscape architect, merchant services - credit card expert, personal chef, commercial realtor, travel agent, jeweler or wardrobe consultant.

See you at our August lunch .... at the Hotel Rex.- Kathleen Horvath, President

Bowling at Pacifica August 18th

Remember how much fun it is to bowl? Let's do it together from 6:30 to 8:30 on Tuesday, August 18th, to raise money for upgrading PWN's Website. Pacifica's Sea Bowl is right on Highway 1. The cost is $50 and includes not only the shoes and bowling, but a buffet dinner as well. Parking is free. For more information contact Lee Abel Bandele, (415)821-2271. ## Board Buddies

The PWN Board at its July meeting came up with a new idea for taking even better care of our members - Board Buddies! Each Board member will focus individualized attention on two or three members. A phone call, an opportunity to get together, answer questions, brainstorm about ways to make PWN even better - we're looking forward to getting to know all of you better. Expect a phone call from a Board member soon! For further information, please contact Andrea Sanchez, Membership Co-Chair, at 415-553-3937, or andrea@totalskincarebyandrea.com.

Profile - Andrea Sanchez

Andrea Sanchez came to San Francisco at age 15 to visit her sister, and fell in love with the city. She saved up her money, and in 1977 drove her Volkswagen bug cross-country from Miami Beach. She immediately found a job in advertising that put her art school graphic design skills to use, and for 25 years she steadily advanced in her field. But the inevitable occurred - burn-out. When her husband encouraged her to pursue her happiness instead of something that stressed her out, she "fell in love with the science of skin," went to beauty school, and six years ago opened her own business. She loves what she does, "providing excellent service, customized and cutting-edge facial treatments, and a comfortable and relaxing environment for my clients."

Andrea loves the friends she's made through PWN almost as much as she loves her family - her husband, 25-year old son, and 25- and 27-year old stepdaughter and stepson. Andrea's spending a lot of time at work these days, focusing on marketing. When she does get away, she escapes to the gym and Pilates, "to take care of my aching body." But her hard work has paid off, as she has built a strong and loyal clientele in six years, and is still growing her business.
